

names new president

JustCommunity Inc. has appointed Gina F. Rubel Esq. as the president of the board of directors. Rubel joined justCommunity in 2002 as a member of the board. Since then, she has worked to build community education and training services in the areas of youth development, community mobilization and restorative practices to schools and other agencies working with youth. It is a licensed training provider on the topic of the restorative justice practice known as community accountability circles.

JustCommunity is the coordinating agency for the Healthy Communities-Healthy Youth coalitions of the Quakertown and Pennridge areas and also sponsors a national youth development conference each fall called "Unleashing the Power of Youth and Community Potential." JustCommunity also provides research based prevention curriculum to area private and public schools in the areas of alcohol, tobacco and other drug abuse.

Rubel is currently the president of Furia Rubel Communications (www.furiarubel.com) in Perkasio. Her nonprofit experience includes committee chairwoman for the Philadelphia Bar Association Young Lawyers Division Harvest for the Homeless and Lawyer-in-the-Classroom programs.

She has also executed fund-raising programs for the American Heart Association, Alzheimer's Association, American Diabetes Association, Dogs for the Deaf and the Local Order Sons of Italy Scholarship Fund. Rubel recently completed two three-year terms on a Supreme Court of Pennsylvania Disciplinary Board Hearing Committee, and she is an active member of the Bucks County Women's Business Forum.

Rubel has a bachelor's degree in Corporate Communications and International Business from Drexel University. She earned a J.D. from the Widener University School of Law, and maintains a Pennsylvania law license. She resides in Bucks County with her husband, Scott, and their children, Gianna and Ford.

(L to R) Lee Rush, Mary Ann Solobez, Gina Rubel
awareness, garner corporate sponsorships, identify community partners and to promote youth development and empowerment.

"We feel blessed that we were able to attract a person with Gina's leadership skills and enthusiasm," said executive director Lee Rush. "Gina's nonprofit and business experience will help us to get our messages to parents and youth locally, regionally and nationally. We face great challenges, but we will make great strides toward our collective belief that today's youth have the power to positively change our world."

JustCommunity Inc. (www.justcommunity.com) is a nonprofit organization which provides consultation,

The Daily Intelligence 10-27-03

Quakertown

Group names president

JustCommunity Inc., a nonprofit organization that provides consultation, education and training services for youth development in the community, schools and other agencies, has named Gina F. Rubel president of its board of directors.

Rubel, who joined the organization in 2002, has worked to build community awareness, to gain corporate sponsorships and community partners, and to promote youth development.

A lawyer and county resident, Rubel is president of Furia Rubel Communications in Perkasio and recently completed two three-year terms on the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania Disciplinary Board Hearing Committee.

JustCommunity is the coordinating agency for the Healthy Communities/Healthy Youth Coalitions of the Quakertown and Pennridge areas. It sponsors a national youth development conference each fall.